Saturday, August 30, 2008 started out as a perfect summer day to get some real work done. The weather was nice and somewhat overcast, perfect for working outside. And we were looking forward to Lend A Hand Day where we would work with other supporting organizations and members of the community to beautify the city of El Cajon, California.

Lend A Hand Day is sponsored by the El Cajon Community Development Corporation, which is a non-profit 501(c)(3) community based organization. Christina Burke is the Community Development Coordinator. She works diligently to ensure that the city is clean and well kept, particularly the residential areas.

Even though August was a busy month for the national fellowship, some of us were able to participate in Lend A Hand Day. And despite the change in weather condition, we managed to get a lot accomplished.

Our assigned task involved painting three homes. When we checked in, all the tools and supplies were staged and ready for use. We task-organized and started cleaning, trimming and painting. Before long, we were well into the project when the rain started to fall. Nonetheless, we had a great time and enjoyed meeting and working with others as we fulfilled our mission.

Lend A Hand Day is an ongoing project that we will continue to support in every way possible.

Voices of Victory Christian Ministry Holds Women Symposium

Submitted by Sister Linda Bims—"Going to the Next Level" was the theme for the Women's Day Symposium, held Saturday, September 6, 2008, at Voices of Victory Christian Ministry in Spring Valley, which was hosted by the beautiful 1st Lady of Voices of Victory, Minister Joyce Moore. She was well prepared for our arrival.

The scheduled seminars started at 9:30 am, after a time of Praise and Worship. The ladies were given lovely gifts upon arrival: Mary Kay products, special bookmarks, and other small tokens of appreciation. There was also a sign-up for a drawing that would take place during the post-symposium brunch.

Praise and Worship began on a high note, led by Sister Tinika Wyatt of North Park Apostolic Church, and accompanied by Minister Turner on the keyboard. Sister Tinika is a gifted singer who has a beautiful, clear voice that's perfect for praise.

Ladies of various age groups were in attendance, all praising God together. The participation was great, as women gladly put aside their usual Saturday activities to be blessed by the Word and Christian fellowship.

After Praise and Worship, the seminars started promptly. Evangelist Orgia Senior (pictured below) led with "Adorned with Character, Integrity, and Sobriety". Evangelist Senior is an anointed, motivational speaker. She had the women of God clapping and nodding their heads in agreement many times throughout her presentation. She was truly a blessing!

Women Symposium continues...

Next up was Pastor Jeraldine Harrison, speaking on: "Vessels of Honor". Pastor Jerri presented a very timely subject, especially for the younger ladies in the audience, on how to honor the vessel (body) that God has provided; how not to fall into the abusive ways of the world; how to remind yourself that you are a child of the King. She supported her subject from the books of Romans, Isaiah, and Jeremiah. One of the younger ladies I spoke with after the symposium was very moved by Pastor Jerri and her presentation, and felt strengthened as she prepared to carry on in her life at school.

Last on the podium was Evangelist Tina Bowdan, presenting "Christian Women of Strength". She has spoken before at various events held by Voices of Victory and it is always a pleasure to have her on program. She is a powerful speaker, commanding attention and focus, while also having the ability to keep us smiling. Her anecdotes of her family life are always welcome, and she shared some of the same things that many of the women in attendance have gone through, or are going through, themselves. This type of ministry is always well received and especially enjoyed. Evangelist Tina is especially "tuned in" to the issues that are peculiar to women in their everyday lives, as we strive to be that Christian woman of strength, often needing to share that strength with others, holding them up before the Lord, as well as ourselves. She strongly supported her message with scripture out of Leviticus, Psalms, Proverbs, and 2nd Samuel.

The morning flew by, and we ended as we began: with more praise, worship and intercessory prayer, as the women flocked to the altar to be blessed and receive prayer from the mighty women of God who had presented the seminars.

As we were prayerfully dismissed, but not from His presence, we went next door to the fellowship hall to be filled with the wonderful brunch that had been prepared for us. The meal was bountiful and especially delicious, as we visited and fellowshiped with one another. I briefly stepped away, and on my return found I had won one of the drawings: a wonderful book with a shining bookmark!

It was a blessed time in the Lord! And all the women who attended, young and "slightly less young" agreed that we cannot wait for the next one!

Temple of Christ Church Holds First Annual Missionary Day!

Submitted by Sister Linda Binns— Temple of Christ Church hosted its First Annual Missionary Day on Sunday, September 14, 2008, at 3:30 pm in its beautiful, newly remodeled sanctuary.

The service began promptly with rousing and spirit-filled selections from the Temple of Christ praise team, followed by reverent prayer and a relevant and timely scripture reading.

A sincere "Welcome" to our guests followed, delivered by Sis Deloris Black. Sis Black is the sister of our Guest Speaker: Minister Doris Walker. Sis Black also read a short biography and spoke a little about her sister. Minister Walker is the oldest of 13 siblings. Sis Black is the 3rd oldest in the family. She was moved and honored to have her sister bring the message on our first Annual Missionary Day.

Before Minister Walker (whose home church is First Baptist Church of Hampton, in Hampton, Virginia) brought the word from Heaven, we had special music by Temple of Christ's Praise Team, followed by a moving and beautiful original Yolanda Adams song "Let it Go", sung by a special guest of the Black family, Neema Baraka. She was accompanied on the piano by Tom Black, son of Sis Black and an accomplished pianist in his own right.

Then the moment arrived we had all been waiting for: Minister Walker came before us and brought us the anointed word of God. She spoke to us out of Matthew 5, and when she was done we all understood the importance of being obedient to the Word of God, and that we must "Go Forth and Serve!"

Rev. Claudia Sealie, Pastor of Temple of Christ Church, made a special welcome to all of Minister Walker's family who was present, including all of Sis Black's children and grandchildren. We were happy to see our own Diane and Tom; the children Shay, Kiana and Dillon and also Tony.

After the message, the pastors had prayer and alter call, and then we were dismissed and were able to enjoy a short social time, fellowshiping with one another as we left.

Temple of Christ was honored to welcome Voices of Victory Christian Ministry, along with their pastor, and our prelate, Bishop Willie J. Moore and his lovely and supportive wife, Minister Joyce Moore. Even though Pastor Vincent Thomas was unable to attend, Christ Community Center was there to support and enjoy the service. That is what true friendship is all about, and we were glad to see them, as always. Voices of Victory National Fellowship Regional Bishop Cedric Murphy was also in attendance.

With eager anticipation, we look forward to our next Annual Missionary Day at Temple of Christ Church!

Editorial Notes

We hope and pray that this newsletter is a blessing to you and that you are enjoying our success stories. We are forever moving forward with the vision.

Last month was very exciting with the men participating in Lend A Hand Day, Voices of Victory Christian Ministry conducting a women's symposium, and Temple of Christ Church holding its first Annual Missionary Day Service.

We had a great month and everything ended successfully! Moreover, we planned and conducted our very first musical banquet, a national fundraiser in support of our upcoming Convocation. We enjoyed tremendous success and will share the story with you in our next edition. Check our website for updated information.

Lastly, I'm happy to report that Sister Linda Binns will be our new editor in chief, starting very soon. She will take over my duties as writer and editor. Praise God!

Again, our objective is to win souls and continue to promote unity and care for the churches as well as for the poor and disenfranchised throughout the city while actively engaging in community activities. We want San Diego County to be a better place to live.

We believe that we can do all things through the power of God who gives us strength!

The newsletter is available at www.vovnf.com. It is also available in PDF format, making it easy for you to print and share with those who do not have access to the Internet. If you should ever have any questions or would like to join this great and growing fellowship, please contact us at (619) 697-8597 or email admin@vovnf.com. Enjoy and have a blessed day!
